MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Personnel

SUBJECT : Counselling in CIA

1. A previous IG survey recommended a more systematic approach to, and more effective machinery for, personnel counselling in CIA, and we know that [REDACTED] and others have given considerable thought to this for some time. We have also read [REDACTED] paper. We realize that many facts-of-life problems of ceilings and space have inhibited progress in this field.

2. From our brief reconnaissance to date, it is our impression that this is a problem which CIA ought to give more thought to - for many reasons.

3. May we ask what the Office of Personnel's position on this matter is?
